Prayers for the Week

The World: Egypt - Pray for the leaders and parishioners of St. Saviour's Anglican Church in Suez which was attacked with stones and Molotov cocktails. Pray also for the other Orthodox and Catholic churches in Suez and upper Egypt. Please pray that the situation will calm down, for wisdom and tact for the police and the army, for the safety of all churches and congregations, and that all in Egypt would be safe.

Continue to pray for Syria especially the Christians caught in the middle of the conflict. May God bring good results from the US-sponsored peace talks between Israel and Palestine. May justice prevail in Zimbabwe as the courts examine the election results and process. May God's shalom somehow subdue religious militants all over the world wherever they seek to usurp the role of government.

Mission Partners: we remember the Corin family in central Asia. Please pray for the earnest people who sought God, over Ramadan, that He would draw them to himself. Lift up Chris and Catherine as they help coach a local couple involved in local youth ministry. May God move mightily at the youth camp this weekend.

Within the Diocese: Reefton and Di Griffin. Give thanks for the close cooperation between all five denominations here in Reefton - many of them will be helping run the Alpha course. Pray that those invited to the Alpha course beginning 1st week of September will have their hearts softened and their ears open to the promptings of the Holy Spirit.

Local Churches: The Methodist Churches in Richmond and Wakefield led by Paul Tregurtha. Be with these small, mostly elderly congregations. May the grace and mercy of God be evident to them and through them.

Our parish: We give thanks for those of all ages in study groups. May each one of us come to know you more deeply. Be with Glenda and the Girls' Brigade team – thank you for their faithfulness. May each girl experience your love.

Those in need within our own church family: Thank you for working in the lives of those we have prayed for in the past. We remember all who continue to be affected by the results of the flooding and also Valda, John McNaughton, Caroline, Owen and Elizabeth, Warren, George, Carole Burke, Noel, Wendy, Grant, Rex Senior, and those in the rest homes and hospitals in our parish.
