New Parishioners - David and Christa Brown are recent arrivals from Australia, neither was actually born there – Christa migrated from Germany with her parents in 1955 while David, born here in Palmerston North, went to Australia in 1980 "for good if not forever". Both lost their long term partners in 2008 totally unaware of each other's existence but met at St Simon & St Judes Bowral's Autumn Music Festival the following year. They were married in St Judes in 2010 convinced that the Lord had guided their paths so far and was also encouraging this move to New Zealand where David has three daughters in Otago and a son in Palmerston North. They have been thrilled with their welcome at the Church on the Hill finding similarity of people and services to those experienced in the Southern Highlands of Australia whose population and climate are also close to that of Nelson; they realise they are not "big city people" any more and are looking forward to a long stay here.
