Reflection Questions

- What do you think of when you read Isaiah 35:1-10? What pictures does it bring to mind?

- Are there times in your life, or people you know, where you have seen the results of God “watering deserts” and turning non-productive areas into productive areas?

- Are there people around you that you can bring the growing, blooming, bursting with life Kingdom of God to? Even if it feels like small, insignificant ways?
