Holy Trinity Church Prayer Points

February 2014

Seniors (Kay Peterson)

- For Owen as he takes over some of the Rest Home services and gets to know the older people in our parish.
- Thanks for the staff at Age Concern, the great job they do and their willingness to work closely with us.
- For those within our parish that hesitate to contact me because they don't want to bother me with their problems.

Youth (Micah Did-Dell and Antonio Sardella)

- For the youth that they might sense God's presence with them through the year in their studies and hardships.
- For guidance and God's presence for Antonio as he goes into Waimea College with 24/7 and for guidance, financial and spiritual support for the ministry of City of Light music band.

Children (Ingrid Blackbeard)

- Thanks for the diverse team of teachers and assistants and Ingrid's capable organisation.
- Prayer for clarity of teaching in enjoyable ways.
- Pray for the children who face various changes this year – may they experience God's love constantly.

AAW (Jean McConachie and Alison Heslop)

- Give thanks for the planning meeting for Afternoon AAW Group held 27 Jan with contributions and fellowship from 10 members.
- Pray that people invited to speak to our 2 groups during the year will be interesting speakers.
- Pray for those in our 2 groups whose health is failing and are unable to participate as fully as in the past.

Girl's Brigade (Glenda Thomson) / Friends 'n Fun (Carol Sardella)

- Pray for each of these groups as they begin the new year, for encouragement for the leaders and for fun and friendship for the children and families.
