

Short Courses

Here are details of 3 courses being planned for Term 3.

Children's After School Course

This will be held one afternoon a week for 6 - 8 weeks. It will cover what Christians believe, belonging to the Christian family, Communion and Confirmation. As the course ends we will see how each child and family wish to respond. Some may look at Confirmation, others may wish to consider Baptism or a Faith Statement or official admission to Communion. The sessions will be for primary and intermediate school children only at this stage. Please get back to me asap with expressions of interest and suitable days.

How to Read the Bible

This course is especially suitable for new adult Christians, those learning about faith or those who are not yet convinced about the Bible. It will probably be held on Thursday evenings over a 6 week period beginning on 1st August but the time and place is negotiable depending on interest. We can have it during the day if that is preferable. Would you like to have this at your place?

The Big Ask

We've all got questions about God and faith and life. This course aims to address some of the hard questions and not in a superficial way. Again it's suitable for people who have Christian faith and those who don't. Three of the current world's deeper thinkers are involved in presenting – Rob Bell, Philip Yancey and Lee Strobel. The sessions are held over about 8 weeks and will likely begin after "How to read the Bible" finishes near the end of Term 3. Again, time and day is negotiable depending on interest.

Reflection questions:

- What comes first, love or forgiveness?
- Is it obvious to others that I have been forgiven much or forgiven little?
- When other people are around me do I prompt them to want to be better people?
- When Christ tells us; “Go in peace” – where do we go?
