Prayer for the day:

Loving Father, overflow our hearts with your love for all people. Lead us, by the power of your Holy Spirit, to those whom you want us to actively love and minister to. Help us to hear your voice and obey your mandate of love out of the overflow of Jesus in our lives. We pray this in the name of your dear Son, the one who lived, died and rose again, that all may know him. Amen

A Poem: Many Thanks - Thank you my church family / For all the prayers you said / When I was on chemo / And it was hard to get out of bed! // Your caring thoughts have lifted me / Into the Savior's arms / Whose mighty power sustained me / And was to me like balm.// God bless you everybody / For those prayers to God / They helped me each and every day / And covered me with love.—Shirley Jackson

Prayers for the Week

The World: continue to pray for the humanitarian crisis in Syria but also for one of the oldest Christian communities in the world which is currently being persecuted; for Egypt where church leaders have specifically asked for prayer, for peace and justice to be established and for a non-violent way forward through what seems to be becoming a bitter political conflict; for South Sudan for unity and reconciliation.

Mission partners: Corin Family in East Asia; bless the work and witness of the coffee shop and help the Corins to assist and encourage the scattered Christians in the rural areas, particularly in the area of establishing small businesses.

Within the Diocese: Muchison Community Church, (Allan Wasley is priest in charge as well as Vicar of Wakefield), a small congregation, with a very loving and caring group of mostly older parishioners, bless their op shop, strengthen their witness and grant them growth in that key rural location.

Local Church: Annesbrook Church, pray for Brent and Viv Liebezeit and their team as they minister to their large church; bless their work with young people and help them to disciple and encourage the youngsters.

Our parish: may we really grasp the urgency of mission but help us to be always led and empowered by Your Spirit; pray for the teams running Lunch on Hill on Tuesday and the Book Fair on Saturday, but also for their contact with non or lapsed Christians.

Those in need within our own church family: We remember the Stephens and Lyons families on their bereavements; all who continue to be affected by the results of the flooding and also Valda, John McNaughton, Caroline, Owen and Elizabeth, George, Carole Burke, Noel, Wendy, Grant, Rex Senior, Len, and those in the rest homes and hospitals in our parish.
